

Dear Student,

Thank you for your interest in the Indiana Electric Cooperative Youth Tour to Washington, D.C. sponsored in part by Hendricks Power Cooperative. If selected, you will travel to our nation's capital alongside many other students your age.

This year, those selected to attend the Youth Tour will meet in Indianapolis on Thursday, June 10, 2010 and depart for Washington, D.C. the following day. Students will return from the Youth Tour on Thursday, June 17, 2010. Hendricks Power Cooperative will cover travel expenses to and from Washington D.C. - departing from and returning to Indianapolis. Also included are meals, lodging and scheduled event fees. Participants will be responsible for other necessary travel arrangements and incidental expenses they may incur.

We, at Hendricks Power, are proud to sponsor this educational program as part of a continuous effort to support and stay actively involved in the communities we serve. We hope that this program helps develop young professionals who are vital in building our future.

Thank you for your interest in the Youth Tour program. We wish you luck with this unique opportunity to enrich your education of our nation's government and the electric utility industry.

Sincerely,

Donnis Mizelle
CEO, Hendricks Power Cooperative
